

Transition of Leadership: A Second Generation CEO's Perspective

Tuesday, March 26, 2013

Blaine, MN

6 – 8 p.m.

Learn from the lessons from a second generation CEO who took over from her father. Find out how she accomplished the transition with very few issues.

At the end of this session, you will be able to:

- Understand how to avoid many management transition issues
- Distinguish between the different equity types
- Recognize accredited investors
- Learn about equity compensation
- Identify equity restrictions and control

Who should attend

This session is designed for CEO's, general managers, presidents, and small business executives.

Speaker

Jodi (Sizer) Boldenow, President and CEO of Industrial Door Company, Inc., manages this second generation company along with her brother, the VP and Director of Operations. With three divisions in three states and 150 employees, Industrial Door Company is a leading residential and commercial overhead door sales, service, and installation company in the Twin Cities and the largest professional garage door dealer in the Midwest.
