

DINKYTOWN TRANSPORTATION FORUM

THE FUTURE OF GETTING AROUND IN DINKYTOWN

TUESDAY, AUGUST 12, 2014
5:00 – 8:00 P.M.
@ THE VARSITY THEATER

Presented by the Marcy Holmes Neighborhood Association and the Dinkytown Business Alliance Moderated by Minneapolis City Councilman, Jacob Frey

DINKYTOWN TRANSPORTATION FORUM: The Future of Getting Around in Dinkytown

Join us August 12 at the Varsity Theater to see how the recently approved neighborhood master plan is being put into action in Dinkytown with these simple, quick and inexpensive solutions making it easier to walk, bike, and park!

Minneapolis Council Member Jacob Frey will be the Master of Ceremonies

5pm - 6pm Happy Hour with Free Drinks and Food

Questions answered by:

Minneapolis Public Works
Council members Cam Gordon and Kevin Reich
Metro Transit
Minneapolis Bicycle Coalition
Vikings Football
Visual Communications
Hennepin County
University Parking and Transportation
University District Alliance
Local Businesses, Property Owners, Faith Community and Greek Organizations

6pm - 7pm Forum Presentation Featuring

- Mackenzie Turner from Minneapolis Public Works to talk about Leading Pedestrian intervals at stop lights making it safer and easier to walk
- Zev Radziwill from the MRT task force to talk about changes to the Dinkytown Greenway making it easier to bike to Dinkytown from Downtown and Stadium Village
- Kelley Yemen from Hennepin County to talk about extending the bike lane along 4th St SE making it easier and safer to bike in Dinkytown
- Paul Buchanan from Marcy-Holmes Neighborhood Association Transportation Committee to talk about increased space for public on street parking making it easier to drive in Dinkytown
- Ronnie Toledo from Minneapolis Parking Services to discuss adding meters in the Dinkytown area.

7pm - 8pm Give us feedback on presentation topics

Please contact Paul Buchanan at bucho226@umn.edu for additional information

Don't miss it!